

#F-0057783

Date Filed: 6/2/2020

Defendant: MCCOLLOCH, JARED M

Arrested: 4/25/2020    Gender: M    Race: White    Birth Date: 5/24/1990

Charges

DOMESTIC ABUSE BATTERY - STRANGULATION
SECOND DEGREE BATTERY

Union

100 East Bayou
Suite 105
Farmerville, Louisiana 71241
(318) 368-3055
Visit Union Parish Clerk of Court Website

#F-0057783 - 6/2/2020

| Date ↑     | Minute Details                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 04/30/2020 | Gwen's Law Hearing set this date called and defendant present via video. Marcy Allen present via video as attorney for defendant. Evidence adduced with testimony from Det. H. Cade Nolan. State introduced, offered, and filed S1 and S2 into evidence. Court ordered defendant be held without bond. A Protective Order was issued and defendant will be served at the UPDC. Defendant is not to contact, harass, or threaten the victim. Defendant is not to go within 100 yards of victim's house, job, or school. Defendant is to undergo substance abuse treatment/program. Defendant sworn and asked about handguns, firearms, and ammunition.                                                                                                                                    |
| 06/03/2020 | Defendant present for arraignment and motion to reduce bond with Cameron Murray who enrolls as counsel. Defendant waives formal arraignment, tenders as plea of not guilty and reserves his right to trial by jury. Division A is assigned. Pretrial conference set July 22, 2020. Motion to reduce bond is taken up. Bond is set on Domestic abuse battery-strangulation at $25,000 and second degree battery is set at $25,000 and amended Order filed into the record. Defendant is ordered to wear ankle monitor as a condition of bond. He is to comply with protective order and not consume alcohol or drugs and be subject to drug testing. Ankle monitor is to be placed before he leaves jail. Defendant is also ordered not to have any contact whatsoever with the victim. |
| 06/25/2020 | Amending bail order set this date called and attorney, C. Murray, present. Court ordered bail order amended to include the defendant complete a outpatient substance abuse treatment program.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 07/24/2020 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant presence was waived. Counsel, Cameron Murray, present in the courtroom. This matter has been refixed to August 26, 2020. Defendant waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 09/02/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called. Defendant's presence waived by counsel, Cameron Murray. This matter has been refixed to September 23, 2020 at 1:30 p.m.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 09/25/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called and defendant present via video with counsel, Cameron Murray, present in the courtroom. This matter is refixed to November 18, 2020 at 1:30 p.m. Defendant waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 11/19/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called and defendant present via video with counsel, Cameron Murray present in the courtroom. This matter has been refixed to December 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. Defendant waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 12/17/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called and defendant's presence waived. This matter has been refixed to January 20, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. Defendant waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 01/21/2021 | Preliminary exam set this date called and the defendant present via video with counsel, Cameron Murray present in the courtroom. The defendant bonded on charges. This matter has been refixed to March 17, 2021 at 9:00 a.m.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

| Date       | Minute Details ↑                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 06/25/2020 | Amending bail order set this date called and attorney, C. Murray, present. Court ordered bail order amended to include the defendant complete a outpatient substance abuse treatment program.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 06/03/2020 | Defendant present for arraignment and motion to reduce bond with Cameron Murray who enrolls as counsel. Defendant waives formal arraignment, tenders as plea of not guilty and reserves his right to trial by jury. Division A is assigned. Pretrial conference set July 22, 2020. Motion to reduce bond is taken up. Bond is set on Domestic abuse battery-strangulation at $25,000 and second degree battery is set at $25,000 and amended Order filed into the record. Defendant is ordered to wear ankle monitor as a condition of bond. He is to comply with protective order and not consume alcohol or drugs and be subject to drug testing. Ankle monitor is to be placed before he leaves jail. Defendant is also ordered not to have any contact whatsoever with the victim. |
| 04/30/2020 | Gwen's Law Hearing set this date called and defendant present via video. Marcy Allen present via video as attorney for defendant. Evidence adduced with testimony from Det. H. Cade Nolan. State introduced, offered, and filed S1 and S2 into evidence. Court ordered defendant be held without bond. A Protective Order was issued and defendant will be served at the UPDC. Defendant is not to contact, harass, or threaten the victim. Defendant is not to go within 100 yards of victim's house, job, or school. Defendant is to undergo substance abuse treatment/program. Defendant sworn and asked about handguns, firearms, and ammunition.                                                                                                                                    |
| 11/19/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called and defendant present via video with counsel, Cameron Murray present in the courtroom. This matter has been refixed to December 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. Defendant waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 09/25/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called and defendant present via video with counsel, Cameron Murray, present in the courtroom. This matter is refixed to November 18, 2020 at 1:30 p.m. Defendant waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 10/22/2021 | Preliminary Exam set this date called and defendant present with Cameron Murray, who enrolls as counsel. On motion by defense with defense waiving all delays, this matter is re fixed for November 17, 2021.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 12/17/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called and defendant's presence waived. This matter has been refixed to January 20, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. Defendant waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 01/21/2021 | Preliminary exam set this date called and the defendant present via video with counsel, Cameron Murray present in the courtroom. The defendant bonded on charges. This matter has been refixed to March 17, 2021 at 9:00 a.m.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 09/02/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called. Defendant's presence waived by counsel, Cameron Murray. This matter has been refixed to September 23, 2020 at 1:30 p.m.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 07/24/2020 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant presence was waived. Counsel, Cameron Murray, present in the courtroom. This matter has been refixed to August 26, 2020. Defendant waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 07/21/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On joint motion, this matter has been refixed for August 24, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. Defense waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 06/29/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by defense, this matter has been refixed for July 21, 2021 at 9:00 a.m.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 05/20/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by defense, this matter has been refixed for June 23, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. Defense waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 03/22/2021 | Preliminary Examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by defense, this matter has been refixed for May 19, 2021. Defense waived all delays.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 03/23/2022 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by State, this matter is dismissed without prejudice. Bail restriction dissolved and ankle monitor ordered removed.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 11/18/2021 | Preliminary Examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Dawn Frasier, standing in for Cameron Murray. On motion by defense and waiving all delays, this matter is refixed for December 15, 2021 at 1:30 P.M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 12/15/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Murray Cameron. On joint motion, this matter has been refixed for March 23, 2022.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 08/24/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and this matter has been refixed by counsel, Cameron Murray, for October 20, 2021 at 9:00 a.m.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 05/20/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by defense, this matter has been refixed for June 23, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. Defense waived all delays.                         |
| 06/29/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by defense, this matter has been refixed for July 21, 2021 at 9:00 a.m.                                                    |
| 07/21/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On joint motion, this matter has been refixed for August 24, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. Defense waived all delays.                            |
| 08/24/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and this matter has been refixed by counsel, Cameron Murray, for October 20, 2021 at 9:00 a.m.                                                                                           |
| 10/22/2021 | Preliminary Exam set this date called and defendant present with Cameron Murray, who enrolls as counsel. On motion by defense with defense waiving all delays, this matter is re fixed for November 17, 2021.                         |
| 11/18/2021 | Preliminary Examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Dawn Frasier, standing in for Cameron Murray. On motion by defense and waiving all delays, this matter is refixed for December 15, 2021 at 1:30 P.M. |
| 12/15/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Murray Cameron. On joint motion, this matter has been refixed for March 23, 2022.                                                                    |
| 03/23/2022 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by State, this matter is dismissed without prejudice. Bail restriction dissolved and ankle monitor ordered removed.        |

#M-0057784 - 6/2/2020

#M-0057784

Date Filed: 6/2/2020

Defendant: MCCOLLOCH, JARED M

Arrested: 4/25/2020    Gender: M    Race: White    Birth Date: 5/24/1990

Charges

FALSE IMPRISONMENT

Union

100 East Bayou
Suite 105
Farmerville, Louisiana 71241
(318) 368-3055
Visit Union Parish Clerk of Court Website

Date ↑

Minute Details

|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 06/03/2020 | Defendant present for arraignment and motion to reduce bond with Cameron Murray who enrolls as counsel. Defendant waives formal arraignment, tender guilty. Status conference set July 22, 2020. Motion to reduce bond is taken up. Bond is set $5,000 and amended Order filed into the record. Defendant is ordered to monitor as a condition of bond. He is to comply with protective order and not consume alcohol or drugs and be subject to drug testing. Ankle monitor is to be worn and leaves jail. Defendant is also ordered not to have any contact whatsoever with the victim. |
| 06/25/2020 | Amending bail order set this date called and attorney, C. Murray, present. Court ordered bail order amended to include the defendant complete a outpatient treatment program.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

#M-0057784 - 6/2/2020

|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 07/24/2020 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant presence was waived. Counsel for defendant, Cameron Murray, present in the courtroom. This matter has been refixed for August 26, 2020. Defendant waived all delays.       |
| 09/02/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called. Defendant's presence waived by counsel, Cameron Murray. This matter has been refixed to September 23, 2020 at 1:30 p.m.                                                                        |
| 09/25/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called and defendant present via video with counsel, Cameron Murray, present in the courtroom. This matter is refixed to November 18, 2020 at 1:30 p.m. Defendant waived all delays.                   |
| 11/19/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called and defendant present via video with counsel, Cameron Murray present in the courtroom. This matter has been refixed to December 16, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. Defendant waived all delays.              |
| 12/17/2020 | Preliminary exam set this date called and defendant's presence waived. This matter has been refixed to January 20, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. Defendant waived all delays.                                                                     |
| 01/21/2021 | Preliminary exam set this date called and the defendant present via video with counsel, Cameron Murray present in the courtroom. The defendant bonded on charges. This matter has been refixed to March 17, 2021 at 9:00 a.m.         |
| 03/22/2021 | Preliminary Examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by defense, this matter has been refixed for May 19, 2021. Defense waived all delays.                                      |
| 05/20/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by defense, this matter has been refixed for June 23, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. Defense waived all delays.                         |
| 06/29/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by defense, this matter has been refixed for July 21, 2021 at 9:00 a.m.                                                    |
| 07/21/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On joint motion, this matter has been refixed for August 24, 2021 at 1:30 p.m. Defense waived all delays.                            |
| 08/24/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and this matter has been refixed by counsel, Cameron Murray, for October 20, 2021 at 9:00 a.m.                                                                                           |
| 10/22/2021 | Preliminary Exam set this date called and defendant present with Cameron Murray, who enrolls as counsel. On motion by defense with defense waiving all delays, this matter is re fixed for November 17, 2021.                         |
| 11/18/2021 | Preliminary Examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Dawn Frasier, standing in for Cameron Murray. On motion by defense and waiving all delays, this matter is refixed for December 15, 2021 at 1:30 P.M. |
| 12/15/2021 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Murray Cameron. On joint motion, this matter has been refixed for March 23, 2022.                                                                    |
| 03/23/2022 | Preliminary examination set this date called and defendant present with counsel, Cameron Murray. On motion by State, this matter is dismissed without prejudice. Bail restriction dissolved and ankle monitor ordered removed.        |

#F-61517 - 11/2/2023

#F-61517

Date Filed: 11/2/2023

Defendant: MCCOLLOCH, JARED M

Arrested: 9/10/2023    Gender: M    Race: White    Birth Date: 5/24/1990

Charges

DOMESTIC ABUSE BATTERY – STRANGULATION
DOMESTIC ABUSE BATTERY – STRANGULATION

Union

100 East Bayou
Suite 105
Farmerville, Louisiana 71241
(318) 368-3055
Visit Union Parish Clerk of Court Website

| Date ↓     | Minute Details                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 11/20/2023 | Arraignment set this date called and defendant failed to appear. On motion of the State, bench warrant ordered issued. Bond $30,000 inglobo.                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 09/18/2023 | Gwen's Law Hearing set this date called and defendant present via video with appointed counsel, Phillip Ellis, present in the Courtroom. The State introduced, offered, and filed S1-53 into evidence. Protective Order issued and reviewed. Defendant cannot possess firearms. The Court sets bond at $15,000 inglobo. (See Order) |